BANANEIRAS TRAIL

Short trail

The trail is quite easy, only 2.5 kilometers (1.3 miles) one way, if You decide to go back 'n' forth You would double the length. Otherwise You may come back by jeep.

Definitely a good option for a short hike, the path is quite smooth and the likelihood of seeing Capuchin Monkeys and Capybaras is great.

Besides the chance of spotting wild life, the landscape is great too, small swamps and springs along the way.

English-speaking trail guides who make explanations about local fauna and flora.

At the end of the trail facility with toilets, restrooms and a wonderful overview deck to wonder the nature of the Iguassu River.

Kayak ride

Recover the breath, take a long pause before going to the second part of the tour, a boat ride upstream in order to catch the kayaks.

Wonderful opportunity for closing the eyes and try to listen to the sound of nature in locus is something really peaceful.

Finally the last part of the tour, boat ride upstream and kayak downstream over the Iguassu River, before and far enough from the Falls.
