Adventure

It is very hard to define The Argentine Experience hence it is not a mere cooking class or a show-off about the best the country can make. This is without doubt an immersive new method of teaching foreigners what is to be - on a daily basis - an Argentinian person!

This would not be a full Argentine Experience without Mate. It was originally consumed by the Guaraní indigenous people - pre-colombian cultures - and it was adapted, once learned all its benefits - to the early mix of southern Latin people and early Gauchos.

Just remembering that the whole Gaucho Culture it is not exclusive of Argentina, other countries Uruguay, Paraguay, southern Chile and southern Brazil, also have Gaucho Culture.

Steeping dried leaves of Yerba Mate in hot water and a metal straw in order to suck the mate up. The straw is usually made of silver.
